Product designer with 8+ years across SaaS, fintech, mobile and desktop products. I work as a product partner: I start from the user problem and the metric, then take it through research and prototypes to tested UI and a design system engineers can build from.

designing digital products	retention at Topple after launch	conversion, –30% drop-off at Fortunian	markets: US, Canada, UK, France, UAE, Morocco

HOW I WORK WITH PRODUCT TEAMS

Problem and metric first
Agree on the user problem and the goal before drawing a screen.

Evidence over opinion
Research, usability tests and A/B tests decide, not taste.

Prototype to decide
Test ideas with users before engineering time is spent.

Designed to ship
Design systems and clear specs, so what ships matches the design.
